The Greater Dallas Youth Orchestra “Holiday Magic” with the Children’s Chorus of Greater Dallas

Dallas- The Greater Dallas Youth Orchestras, Inc. presents “Holiday Magic” on December 14, 2011 at the Meyerson Symphony Center at 7:30 pm.

This fantastic holiday concert features over 300 youth on the stage of the Meyerson. What a perfect way to enjoy the holiday season! Along with the Concert I and the Youth Chorus of the Children’s Chorus of Greater Dallas, the GDYO will perform Salvator Mundi (Mathias), Russian Christmas Music (Reed), Ave Maria (Schubert), selections from Tchaikovsky’s Nutcracker, an audience sing-a-long, and works for chorus!

The Greater Dallas Youth Orchestra (GDYO) brings together 104 of the DFW area’s top high school musicians to create a season of amazing music. Led by music director, Richard Giangulio these young people perform classical works at a professional level.

Single tickets are $8-$40. You can purchase them by calling (214)528-7747 or the night of the performance at the Meyerson Box Office.

The Meyerson is located at 2301 Flora Street in Dallas. For more information go to www.gdyo.org or email info@gdyo.org.

The GDYO is funded in part by the City of Dallas Office of Cultural Affairs, TACA, the Arts District Foundation and Texas Commission on the Arts, with funding from the State of Texas and the National Endowments for the Arts.

Celebrating 40 years of providing music education and performance opportunities for musically talented youth, the Greater Dallas Youth Orchestra was founded in 1972 by parents, educators, and members of the Dallas music community. It has grown to include 7 ensembles: The Greater Dallas Youth Orchestra, the Philharmonic, the Wind Symphony, the Sinfonietta, the Dallas String Ensemble, the Young Performers Orchestra and the Flute Choir. In addition to performing at the Meyerson the GDYO tours internationally including an upcoming tour to Austria, Germany, and the Czech Republic in the summer of 2012. The Greater Dallas Youth Orchestra program offers training to over 400 talented youth musicians from age 6 through 18.
