Heather Hamilton, Bronze Medal winner of the 1980 GDYO Concerto Competition is in the eleventh grade at Richardson High School and is presently participating in her second year with the GDYO as an oboist. She is a piano student of Stephen Nielson and has been studying piano for eleven years. She has been studying oboe for six years under the teaching of Barbara Brazil. Heather was the piano winner of the Greater Southwest Music Festival in the 8th grade.

Brad Richards, Gold Medal winner of the 1980 GDYO Concerto Competition, is a Senior at Richardson High School and is presently participating in his fourth year with the GDYO. He has been studying violin for six years, and for the last three years has been a student of Eliot Chappo. Brad was the winner of the McCarty Young Artists Competition from the Richardson Symphony and also winner in the String Category of the 1980 Dallas Symphonic Festival. He will be attending Eastman School of Music in the fall of 1980.

The Greater Dallas Youth Orchestra wishes to express its appreciation to The University of Texas at Dallas for the use of its rehearsal and concert facilities.

The medals for the 1980 GDYO Concerto Audition Winners have been donated by Mr. John Kershner.
